

Saying Prefixes - Group 2

You're reading with...

the flamingos!

Getting Ready - A Broad View of the Landscape Before You Begin

Remember, a prefix is a word or a syllable which is put in front of another word to add to or change its meaning. Flash Card Set 24 contains the prefixes shown on the item list for this expedition. Say the prefix sounds out loud. Ask your reader to repeat the sounds after you. Next, shuffle the flash cards and present them randomly. When all of the prefixes have been mastered and the activities in this folder have been completed, progress to the next expedition, which will entail reading words with these same prefixes.

There is something a little tricky about one of the prefixes in this expedition. The prefix "a" that appears in words such as,

around aside amuse away

does not follow the Lonely Vowel Rule. It is an exception to the rule. Instead of saying its long sound, the "a" says its short sound. For the purposes of this expedition, introduce the prefix, but move quickly beyond it to the other prefixes in the group. It is easier to teach the prefix "a" in the context of the words that contain that prefix in the next expedition.

Taking a Closer Look - Sample Dialogue to Help Direct Your Course

Tour Guide: "You know, the Safari Success Trail says that the flamingo is tickled pink because you're doing so very well! I think you're doing incredibly well, too. It won't be long until you earn your reading diploma."

Reader: "I can't wait to get my diploma!"

Tour Guide: "Can you think of something special to do to celebrate when you finish all of the reading expeditions?"

Reader: "Yes - I'd like to do..."

Tour Guide: "That sounds like a deal! Right now, we'll look at our new set of prefixes. There are nine of them. I know you'll learn them quickly. Let's begin."

Where will your reader's diploma be displayed? Will you select a special frame and hang it on a wall? Have you put together a scrapbook of reading photographs that will include a colorfully designed "graduation" page?

Flamingos can see color very well and can even recognize their caretakers in zoo settings by their uniforms. They have a very poor sense of smell.

What You'll Need to Pack for the Safari

You will need Flash Card Set 24 and a creative spirit to keep the process fun and alive - you're almost to the finish line!

Results to Achieve During Your Expedition

The reader will learn to read and say the following prefixes from flash cards: "a", "be", "de", "dis", "pre", "tri", "sub", "mis".

Jungle Journal
Accomplished with Excellence	Expedition Activities:
	Reader learns to say and read the prefix "a" correctly (says the short sound of "a") Reader learns to say and read the prefix "be" correctly Reader learns to say and read the prefix "de" correctly Reader learns to say and read the prefix "dis" correctly Reader learns to say and read the prefix "pre" correctly Reader learns to say and read the prefix "tri" correctly Reader learns to say and read the prefix "sub" correctly Reader learns to say and read the prefix "mis" correctly Reader completes Funsheets (instructions to be read by Tour Guide) Reader draws a star on the Safari Success Trail, in space number 64 (check off Jungle Journal in the backpack to advance)

In each box, draw a line from the prefix on the left to each of the words on the right.
Say the new words you make.

dis

like

close

miss

be

came

side

long

pre

tend

school

fix

mis

fit

take

place

In each box, draw a line from the prefix on the left to each of the words on the right.
Say the new words you make.

de

fame
frost
fend

a

round
new
muse

tri

pod
ad
dent

sub

way
let
due

In each box, draw a line from the prefix on the left to each of the words on the right.
Say the new words you make.

be

tray

gun

hind

dis

trust

play

arm

pre

cook

heat

sent

ad

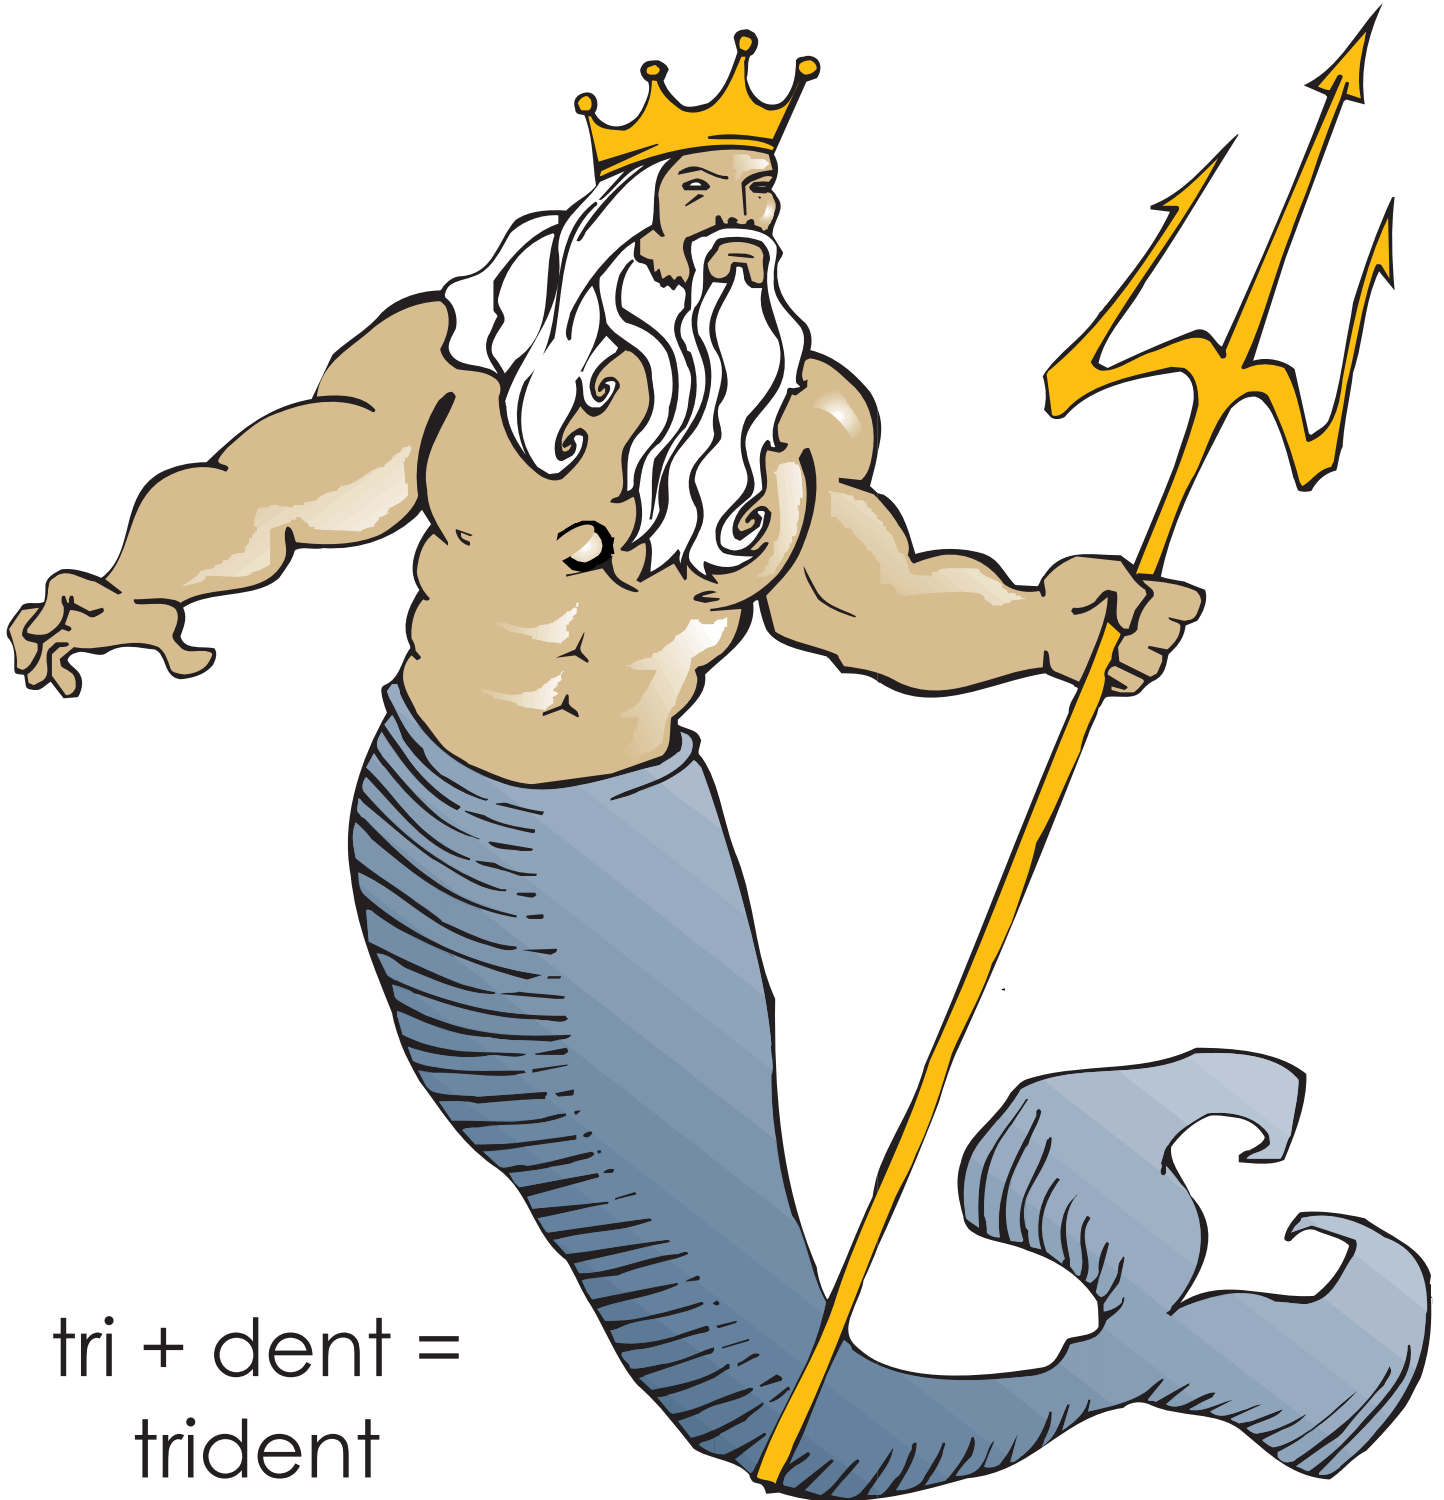

here

vent

vice

Did You Know...

Did you know that a trident was a three-pronged fishing spear which was carried by characters in stories of long ago? The trident was a symbol of power over the sea.

tri + dent =
trident