

The Reading Place

Welcome to The Reading Place!

Come to the wise old baobab tree
And sit by its side, where the shade is free.
Our mighty green tree grew from a seed,
(You'll grow the same way as you learn to read.)
In the very beginning, some things might seem slow,
But lots of great words you will soon come to know.
Reading will make your confidence strong,
And your love for good books will be lifelong.
So, come along now; you'll soon be a reader.
(You'll quickly find out that you're also a leader.)
Come gather 'round this fine Reading Place.
Begin with a smile and a bright, happy face!
We'll make this time count (and have lots of fun, too).
Everyone here is so proud of you!
I will be here to help you and guide -
So, let's read together now - side-by-side.

When "y" is at the End of a Word

For Use with Reading Expedition

54

The Tour Guide says...

Have you ever felt so lonely on a cloudy, windy day?

Has it ever been too rainy to go outside and play?

Have you ever sat and waited for the sun to grace the sky?

If you have, then you know lots of words that end with letter "y".

Be sure to listen to and learn the "y' at the End" song before you embark on this expedition!

Making Tracks with Words

My puppy likes to lick my face.

Billy was grouchy at lunch today.

The witch was creepy and very spooky.

“Try your best,” my mom said, sweetly.

The new girl felt shy and lonely at school.
