

The Reading Place

Welcome to The Reading Place!

Come to the wise old baobab tree
And sit by its side, where the shade is free.
Our mighty green tree grew from a seed,
(You'll grow the same way as you learn to read.)
In the very beginning, some things might seem slow,
But lots of great words you will soon come to know.
Reading will make your confidence strong,
And your love for good books will be lifelong.
So, come along now; you'll soon be a reader.
(You'll quickly find out that you're also a leader.)
Come gather 'round this fine Reading Place.
Begin with a smile and a bright, happy face!
We'll make this time count (and have lots of fun, too).
Everyone here is so proud of you!
I will be here to help you and guide -
So, let's read together now - side-by-side.

Reading Prefixes and Beginnings of Words - 1

For Use with Reading Expedition

The Tour Guide says...

Here's some great advice you should learn right from the start:

Prefixes are easy, if you break the word apart.

Cover up the prefixes, and then, just read the rest.

Put it all together - it's easier than you'd guessed!

Prefixes are letters or word parts that are added to the beginning of a word to change the meaning of the word.

Making Tracks with Words

I can not explain why I enjoy it so much.

“That story is untrue,” Dave remarked.

Can you unwrap this box?

The black insect crawled up my arm.

“Remain in your chair,” the teacher insisted.
